

MAKE YOUR CHOICE

When you look at my face
Do my eyes tell the story of Jesus the Nazarene,
How He's alive in glory?

Do you see His reflection
Like a mirror of truth?
Do you like what you see
When He looks back at you?

Do you feel the conviction of God's Holy Spirit
For the sins you commit?
Or do you even want to hear it?

Do you lie, steal and lust,
Manipulate for your gain
While going through your life
Ignoring Jesus' pain?

Don't you know that He loves you?
He suffered and died for your life!
The Bible says that He is our husband
And we are His precious wife.

If you don't know Him right now
There's still time to call His name,
Before Revelation's day of judgment,
And the end of the game.

Yes, the end of the story
The devil's down on his luck.
When Jesus returns, are you going with Him,
Or in the flames will you be stuck?

Life isn't just about being a good person
Not if you win or lose,

It's living as though today is your last,
And which side is YOURS to choose.

The Word says choose this day
Who you plan to live for
We're never promised tomorrow
So keep reading to find out what's in store:

Those who love Christ
Will be in heaven forever.
No more sickness, worries, pain or grief
All sin erased, we will sing praise together.

The ones who deny the Lord
Will have a different ending
They will scream forever in torment,
Never seeing Jesus our King.

So now you know the rest of the story
And you must make a choice.
Choose Jesus today for life eternal
And proclaim His love with your voice.
